

CINDI KEITHLEY

Cindi Keithley is a native of Council Bluffs with 12 years experience in banking and financial services. Eight of those years have been devoted to securities and investment counseling. Since opening the Investment Center in 1988, her job has been to increase people's income by finding secure companion accounts for CDs. She is an Account Executive for Investment Centers of America, Inc., which is a member of NASD and SIPC.

She helps people manage money to increase their wealth without reducing their life-style. This can be done at little or no cost to the client, taking as little risk as possible and minimizing taxes. Cindi is also active in community service activities such as Rotary, Lions, ABWA, Chamber and Leadership Council Bluffs.
