

Schlautman, Smith promoted to regional slots at Peoples

From Staff Reports

Peoples Natural Gas has promoted John Schlautman and David Smith to regional positions with responsibilities for eight Western Iowa communities.

Schlautman was named Western Iowa regional sales manager, responsible for directing sales of products and services including merchandising, Service Guard (appliance repair) and non-regulated business lines.

Smith has been named Western Iowa Region operations manager, responsible for managing gas, water and wastewater operation.

Schlautman joined Peoples in 1990 as a marketing supervisor.

Schlautman

Smith

Originally from Waterloo, Neb., he graduated from St. Albert High School. He attended the University of Nebraska-Omaha and Buena Vista College.

Schlautman is president of Iowa Western Dorms, vice president of the Visiting Nurses Board and director of the Council Bluffs Red Cross. He is a past president of Sertoma and the Greater Council Bluffs Board of Realtors.

A Ralston, Neb., native, Smith joined Peoples in 1979 as a meter reader. In 1981 he was promoted to service/operations technician and then to lead construction technician. Until his most recent position, he was an operations supervisor in Council Bluffs.

Smith graduated from Ralston High School and attended Kearney State.

He serves on the Council Bluffs Homebuilders Board, the Council Bluffs Operation Pride Board, Leadership Council Bluffs Alumni Association and the Sons of America Legion.